

1A: Living in the Media AgeWarmup Questions - SOLUTIONS

Discuss these questions and decide on the answers. You can use any resources.

1. Which logical fallacy is represented by this image?

- a. Hasty Generalization
- b. Straw Man (or Straw Person)
- c. Personal Attack

2. A logical argument always includes

- a. at least one premise and one conclusion
- b. at least one premise and one fallacy
- c. at least one fallacy and one conclusion

3. When we speak of a Straw Man (or Straw Person) in an argument, we mean

- a. a misrepresentation of someone else's idea or belief
- b. a person who has not used good logic
- c. an argument so weak that it could be said it is made of straw

4. The statement Math is fun is

- a. an argument
- b. a fallacy
- c. a proposition

5. What questions do you still have about section 1A, or what is unclear? Discuss with your group and list anything that your group is not able to answer.